May 30/80

Dear Mr Gray -

Upon reflection, I fear that my remarks regarding my friend were rather too severe, relating to his neglect to write me, and the circumstance caused Mr Gray and myself by his remissness - He saw it all and made ample explanations or excuses, and I could see that the poor man has been driven to distraction and weaned by our work - as you noticed ~~was~~ during your call, he was tired out - and fell asleep. I really esteem him so much that I am sorry for what I said when awayed by his not having replied to an inquirer as to his arrival. His friends in Philadelphia and Boston have been so kind that they have used him up about as much as they did Kump here.

Yours very truly,

Geo. Gray.
